REDEFINING WTO: STRATEGY WEEK MARKS NEW CHAPTER FOR WTO

Strategy Meet: World Toilet Organization 7–9 June 2025, SDG Centre - Singapore.

The World Toilet Organization held its Strategy Meet from 7–9 June in Singapore, bringing together team members and board representatives for a focused retreat.

The sessions aimed to redefine WTO's identity and strategic direction, marking a pivotal shift from a founder-led organization to a self-sustaining, impact-driven institution. This marks an important step forward as WTO strengthens its foundation for the next phase of global impact.

JACK SIM NAMED GOVERNING COUNCIL MEMBER OF CATALYSTNOW

Jack Sim, Founder of the World Toilet Organization, has been named a Governing Council Member of CatalystNow, the world's largest social innovation movement.

As one of its 80 founding members, Jack is excited to contribute to this inspiring community driving solutions for global social challenges.

JACK SIM HIGHLIGHTS HUMAN-CENTERED POLICY IN THE AGE OF AI

At TEDxBencoolen at Singapore Management University, WTO Founder Jack Sim emphasized the irreplaceable role of human gumption in a tech-driven world. Highlighting that "we eat and poop", something robots can't replace- he reminded us that sanitation is a deeply human issue. His talk called for public policy to stay rooted in real human needs, especially for the most vulnerable.

WTO CHAMPIONS DIGNITY ACROSS GENERATIONS
FROM OSAKA EXPO TO SEOUL SUMMIT

The World Toilet Organization made its mark on two major global platforms, advocating for dignity, inclusivity, and sanitation for all.

At Osaka Expo 2025, Founder Jack Sim joined an Adult Diapers Fashion Show featuring innovations from seven leading Japanese manufacturers showcasing next-generation adult diapers designed to empower elderly individuals and combat stigma. The event emphasized that sanitation is a lifelong need-and dignity should never age.

Jack also represented WTO at the Schwab Foundation Summit in Seoul, where global change-makers gathered to accelerate solutions for a fairer, healthier world.
